Exeter Branch

THE VICTORY HALL,
BROADCLYST, EXETER EX5 3DX

Teacher: Barbara Savill

Musician: Michael Greene

Social dancing to music by Michael Greene & Duncan Brown

Barbara Savill, our teacher, strongly believes that dancing is a social activity and should be fun. She started dancing aged 7, and as a teenager was under the tutelage of Iain Stuart Robertson in honour of whom she wrote a dance which was published in Book 42. She has taught at RSCDS Bristol since gaining her teaching certificate in 1992 and has taught adult classes at all levels. Barbara has also taught children to demonstration level, Brownies and Girl Guides, and Duke of Edinburgh's Award candidates. With her husband Kevin she has recently moved to Devon.

Michael Greene, our musician, Michael has been playing the accordion for many years, mainly for ceilidhs and for local dance groups. After a switch from piano to button accordion a few years ago, he started playing for Scottish dancing too, including Corryvreckan, Hopscotch, and RSCDS classes. He lives in Bristol with his folk family.
